Put your Bucks in the Bucket and Brass in the Can.

Ideas for Service Hours:

Meetings are a good way to get a line on work hours also the calendar on the website. Hunter safety and building cleanup are more good ways. Some people come out during down times and do general maintenance like rake/blow leaves, cut grass, police areas, empty trash and lots of construction stuff. And more...

People that can help:

Construction	Gordon Pickerd (616) 866-9055	Hall cleanup	Terry Stuart (616) 887-9917
Hunter Safety	Bill Skallos (616) 866-0096	Gun Shows	Peter Kreutzfeldt (616) 340-2375
Trap & Skeet	Dan Vincent (616) 490-4067

Questions / Gardens call George Mayhak (616) 540-1099

Hope this helps

Range Rules Continued

Archery

Obey Range Officer at all times, don't retrieve arrow in front of firing line until directed.
Follow the appropriate whistle commands. Respect all shooters on the line.
Nock Arrows only on firing line and always pointed downrange.
Field points only, No Broad heads.
Tie back loose hair, Remove loose Jewelry. These things can get caught in bow string.

South Pistol Range:

No Center Fire Rifles (Pistols and 22s only)
Shoot as close to berm/hill/dirt as possible. (Cowboy's and Neighbors are down range)
Shoot Plywood/OSB only with targets at chest level.

25/50 Yard Range

Pistols, rifles, shotguns OK
Cardboard for turning targets overhead (and bean bags)
Shoot Plywood/OSB and cardboard only. Place targets at the same height as shooting position.
This insures hitting the berm/hill

100/200 yard range

Pistols, rifles and shotguns OK
Range shared with cowboys. Please check cowboy area before shooting.
Shoot Plywood/OSB only. Place targets at the same height as shooting position.
This insures hitting the berm/hill
Neighbor is down range. Please, bullets must hit berm/hill/dirt and stay on property.

Cowboy Ranges\Bowls

Gates should indicate when range is in use. Please check.
Rounds are 800 feet per second or less, lead bullets only

Trap / Skeet and 5 Stand

Shotgun with 7 ½ or smaller shot
Load one shell at a time, or two for doubles (skeet / 5 stand)

Please try not to shoot frames/supports/cross rails.

Action on Pistols, Shotguns or Rifles must be open except when shooting.
Must not handle gun while people down range
Check calendar before coming out.
Be aware, Bullet can skip off ground and leave the range/property.

All of us are in charge of safety. Work together, let's have fun.
